Choice Financial Langdon Employees Recognized for Years of Service

Langdon, N.D., November 11, 2011 – Choice Financial is proud to recognize Ron Barta and Kathy Kram for their years of service to the bank in Langdon.

Barta began his 30-year career with the bank in 1981 as an ag loan officer and bank security officer. He spent a brief year as the bank's credit review officer and in 2002 obtained his series 7 and 65 securities licenses to become a Financial Advisor.

Barta has been involved in many of the community organizations throughout his banking career. He is an active member of the Knights of Columbus and St. Alphonsus Church and has previously served as president of the parish council. He was also the director and treasurer of St. Alphonsus School Foundation for 19 years.

Kram has been with the bank for 20 years, where she began her career on the teller line. She has since assisted with the processing and administration for ag and commercial lending.

Kram is involved in several community activities and organizations, including the Eagles Auxiliary, bowling, curling, and has served on the church council at United Lutheran Church, where she is an active.

Choice Financial is a premier provider of financial solutions with nine locations in North Dakota.
